

This gentleman is a thief

of illusions, dreams and hope. His election had sparked a wonderful wave of optimism for the future of oppressed people in Africa in general and in the Democratic Republic of Congo, specifically. Behind his great speeches and charisma, Barack Obama happens to be the perfect Trojan horse for western imperialism propaganda... And the sweetest weapon for the loot of Congo resources & congolese people genocide. But we got wise to his game. Yes, even Stevie Wonder can see it. Because of his betrayal, Obama broke the bond that tied him with congolese and african people.

Don't believe the hype. Believe the facts.
